Rules for Weddings

There is no charge for wedding announcements or black and white photographs. There is a $20 processing charge for publishing photographs in color. A color photograph may be submitted for black and white publication; however, a black and white photograph will be considered for publication based on reproduction quality.

An edited announcement with a two column picture will be published if submitted within 90 days of the wedding date. After 90 days and up to 120 days from the wedding date, an abbreviated announcement with photograph will be published. After 120 days from the wedding date, an abbreviated article will accompany a photograph, published at half the size. Reaffirmation wedding ceremonies will be published only within 60 days with an abbreviated announcement.

An abbreviated announcement omits any descriptions of the wedding attire and flowers.

All submissions must be typed or printed legibly, and will be edited to the OBSERVER style. The OBSERVER publishes weddings in a timely manner at the discretion of the editor. The OBSERVER will mail photographs back ONLY if a SASE is enclosed.
